Maria Kallenbach became a Certified Yoga Instructor with Yoga Alliance after “getting her life back” with yoga. In 2019, she suffered burns on over 80% of her body branding her as a Burn Survivor.

Yoga gave Maria the space to not only heal physically and gain all of her mobility back, but it also gave her space to heal mentally and emotionally as well. Her journey to help Burn Survivors see the powerful connection of breath to movement in healing helped lead Maria to a growing passion to share yoga with EVERYONE.

Whether someone is currently facing adversity or not, everyone can learn ways to use yoga as a means to strive for wellness in their lives. “Yoga works” is what Maria says of its ability to help people gain inner strength, balance, and flexibility in their lives. Maria hopes to share with her students how to implement ways to thrive in their circumstances on and off the mat by adding strength, balance, and flexibility into their daily life using the acronym T.H.R.I.V.E. (Try Having Realistic Intentional Victories Everyday).

She has been on 3 podcasts sharing her story of deep suffering, faith, and overcoming adversity. Follow her on Instagram @burn.survive.thrive for daily encouragement and up-to-date news or visit [burnsurvive thrive.com](http://burnsurvive thrive.com)
